Girl: Daddy, it's my birthday next week. I know I usually have my party at home or in the zoo, like last year. But could I have it at the swimming pool this year?

Man: The swimming pool? That's a great idea! We'll have to get you a new swimming costume.

Woman: Tim, have you got everything? We need to leave now if we want to catch our flight.

Boy: Yes, I'm ready.

Woman: Oh, but where is your winter hat? I left it for you on your bed.

Boy: I've already packed it together with my clothes. I wanted to put most of my cash in the suitcase as well, but then I decided to keep all the money on me, in my wallet.

Woman: And what about your camera?

Boy: I want to take pictures during the flight, so I will put it in my backpack.

- Girl:* Jake, is there anything you'd like to learn?
Boy: What do you mean?
Girl: For example, I can't dance and my dream is to be a good dancer. How about you?
Boy: Oh, I'd like to be a good cook.
Girl: Really? I thought you wanted to be a great basketball player.
Boy: Well, I'm quite happy with my sports skills. But I'm a vegetarian and I want to be able to prepare meals by myself.

- Boy:* Hi, Jack, last week my mum finally bought me the pet which I wanted so much. He lives in my room now but I still don't have a name for him. I'm thinking of calling him Mr Slow because he moves very slowly. When my sister's cat gets near him, he stops and hides his head and legs and looks like a big grey stone on the carpet. You should come and see him.

Tekst 5.

- Julie:* Hi Caroline, this is Julie. I've joined the science club at our school. I hope I'll learn a lot. And guess what! When I got there yesterday I saw your cousin Kate sitting at one of the desks! I had no idea that she goes to the same school as me now. We spent a lot of time talking and we even went out for a pizza together. I'll call you later.
